

“We were so thrilled to have Nancy sensitively introduce laughter as an intervention for those who are facing grief and loss issues as well as serious illness. This workshop would be very useful for social workers, counselors working where compassion fatigue is a risk as well as using it as an adjunct to therapy.”

Sara Montz
Director, Life Transitions Center

“Nancy has the ability to walk into any setting – be it a business, a senior center or a classroom and engage each individual from the start. Enthusiastic, warm and genuine are just some of the attributes Nancy brings to her program. One cannot help but feel the healing power of laughter that takes over as Nancy demonstrates the benefits of incorporating laughter into our lives.”

Beth Gerrish
Dengler & Roberts Funeral Home

“Nancy’s program received excellent ratings on the evaluations! One person wrote, “I came to this seminar depressed, to the point of tears and actually felt better by the end, and even laughed.”

Wendy Backman
Child & Family Services
Employee Assistance Program

Clients include:

- Artis Senior Living
- Twinless Twins
- Association of SIDS and Infant Mortality Programs
- Independent Health Association
- International Cemetery, Cremation and Funeral Association
- Life Transitions Center
- Mental Health Association of Erie County
- Roswell Park Cancer Institute
- St. Joseph's Hospital
- The Center for Hospice and Palliative Care

Humor in Hard Times

Coping with Loss Through Laughter

Do you want to help your clients, patients, and their families transform their lives during the most difficult times imaginable?

Imagine if your audiences left your event saying

“Finally, a program with information I can use.” Nancy’s programs speak to both the heart and the head and they are the perfect combination of content, laughter, and healing.

Corporate, association, and non-profit leaders look to Nancy Weil to deliver on the promise of teaching your group how to “Cope with Loss through Laughter” to audiences as diverse as death care professionals, the bereaved and social workers. This program has been hailed as “extremely comforting” and is a perfect fit for events meant to uplift, inform, and deliver a lasting positive impact.

Audiences: People who are grieving, facing a chronic illness, loss of relationship or job,
Healthcare and Funeral Industry
Sponsored Programs

As a result of this program, audience members will be able to:

- Begin to cope with loss in a healthy way – even alone at 3am!
- Deploy short-term and long-term tools to help ease the pain
- Use the healing power of laughter to process emotions
- Rediscover hope, laughter and connectedness after a loss.

Nancy Weil

Nancy Weil is a leading authority on the relationship between humor and grief and is known for her energetic, entertaining and content-rich programs. Your audience will take home clear, simple tools that can be put to use immediately for both personal and professional growth.

With a degree in business and certifications as a Laughter Leader, Grief Management Specialist and Funeral Celebrant, Nancy understands her client’s needs. She led the world’s only laughter club held in a cemetery, Nancy knows how to bring the benefits of laughter to any place... including your place!

Nancy Weil speaks to audiences who want to enhance their lives during challenging times

Nancy always tailors programs for your particular audience and the specific context of your event. Formats include keynote, half day and full day programs.

Find out how Nancy Weil can make your next event a big success:

Nancy@TheLaughAcademy.com

(716) 908-9154

www.NancyWeil.com

LAUGH
The
academy

Author of:

Teaching people to change their lives through laughter